

Frank Aranda
Industry Trainer

Brief Biography 	For more than 25 years, Frank has worked with a number of companies to build strong, leadership, technical, quality improvement and teambuilding skills and how to apply those same skills at the work site. As a trainer using interactive techniques, he has specific expertise in Communication Skills, Lean Six Sigma applications, Customer Service, Blueprint Reading, Geometric Dimensioning and Tolerancing, Leadership Development, Presentation, Skills, and Teambuilding. Frank has developed his own training materials and delivers training in both English and Spanish. Frank was Director of Manufacturing at Newport Corporation in Irvine. His responsibilities included machine shop, bonding, assembly, testing, and quality assurance. He implemented (and even facilitated) quality improvement, team building, ISO 9001, and statistical process control (SPC) initiatives.
Degree(s)/ Certifications	Bachelor of Science, Microbiology, UCLA MBA Graduate Studies, California State University Fullerton Medical Laboratory Technologist Lean Six Sigma Master Black Belt ODI Quality Improvement Training ISO 9000 Lead Assessor Advanced SPC and DOE Certification Associates Degree, Laser/Optics, Moorpark College
Industries Served	Entertainment, Hospitality, Manufacturing, Pharmaceutical, Medical, Education, Food, Aerospace Industry, and Agricultural.
Program Design / Training Delivery	Leadership Communication Change Management Critical Listening Conflict Management Coaching Others Performance Management Blueprint Reading	Problem Solving Time Management Meeting Management Project Management Teambuilding Customer Service Geometric Dimensioning and Tolerancing Lean Six Sigma Process